Very good with having good and bad choices

Myles is always telling me about "good choices at home". I really appreciate that his behaviour is being modelled in such a positive way.

My child has been bullied and the school dealt with the bullying quickly and effectively

Written on a board of staff will inform

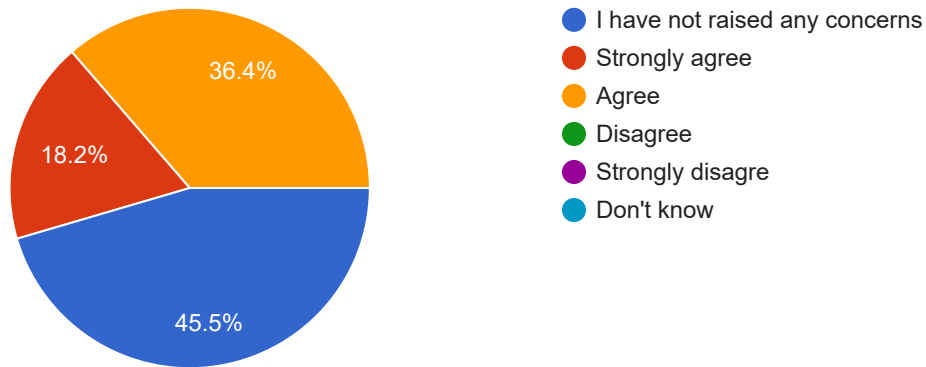

It is easy to access information regarding what my child is learning on a short and long term basis. I have found both the curriculum emails, and the boards outside the classroom telling us when Myles will be learning that day/week, to be incredibly useful.

When I have raised concerns with the school they have been dealt with properly

It is a wonderful nursery.

I cannot praise Grasmere highly enough. My son has been lucky enough to be in Yellow class, and has had the most tremendous time. Each and every member of staff are a huge credit to you, and they put in their very best efforts to make my son (and all the members of the class) happy, content, fulfilled, safe and valued. My son has benefited from a wealth of fantastic opportunities and activities, all while being cared for by the most fantastic team. Thank you , thank you, thank you!
